Grant Corum (American, b. 1981) is a visual & recording artist.

He is best known for his designs, screen prints & audio works for regional, national & international music labels such as Sublime Frequencies, Mississippi Records, Sahel Sounds, Feeding Tube, Aguirre, Psychic Sounds, Lullabies for Insomniacs, Pacific City Sound Visions, and Time-Lag among others. Since 1990, he has created & collaborated on many audio artifacts, installations, performances & exhibits throughout the United States, Guatemala, Canary Islands, Japan and Europe. He is a member of the Million Brazilians ensemble, and runs the record label Psychic Sounds. His DJ mixes have been broadcasted to WFMU (NYC), X-RAY FM (Portland, OR), Dublab (Los Angeles), Radio Raheem (Milan) from his own local Lost Discoveries Radio program. As a participating artist, and audio documentarian, he was awarded the Kindling Fund, in 2020, through the Andy Warhol Foundation, and worked with organizations such as C.I.F.F. (Camden International Film Festival), SPACE, Waking Windows Festival, Waterfall Arts, Apohadion Theater, and Free-Range Music Festival. He currently works & resides in Midcoast Maine.
